The words composing the code may be real words contained in the English, French, German, Italian, Dutch, Spanish, Portuguese or Latin languages, or in any of the vernacular languages of India, or they may be artificial words so framed as to be capable of pronouncation according to the ordinary usage of any of such languages except the vernacular languages of India. Artificial words constructed in accordance with this rule shall not contain the accented letters á, ä, a^, é, ñ ó, ß.

(2) Code words shall not contain more than 10 characters admissible under rule 15, the groups ch, ss, ae, oe, ue being counted as two letters each.

19. Cipher telegrams.—(1) "Cipher telegram" means a telegram the text of which is composed of—

22. Special instructions as specified in Rule 15 (d) may be included in a telegram without extra charge. Other instructions (regarding delivery at destination, notification of delivery, collation, open delivery, or delivery only to the addressee himself, etc.) shall, subject to the provisions of Rules 119, 123 and 124, be written by the sender immediately after the text of the telegram.

23. (2) If in any case owing to floods or to any other cause a place at which an inland telegram is to be delivered cannot be reached otherwise than by boat the provisions of Rule 92 shall apply.

95. If at the address given on the telegram the messenger is unable to attract the attention of any person to whom he is authorized, under the provisions of Rule 89, to effect delivery, a notice shall be left by the messenger at such address advising the addressee of the arrival of the telegram and intimating that delivery may be obtained on application at the Telegraph Office. The telegram shall then be brought back to the Telegraph Office to be delivered to the addressee or his representative upon application. If both are used the name of the territorial subdivision shall come immediately after the name of the foreign telegraph office of destination.

176. When the name of the locality given as the destination does not appear in the official Nomenclature des Bureaux Télégraphiques, the sender shall write after this name either the name of the country or of the territorial subdivision or other particulars sufficient to enable the telegraph office of origin to trace the locality of the telegraph office of destination. STATE TELEGRAMS.

183. Definition.—"Foreign State (or Government) telegram" means a foreign telegram sent in his official capacity by (i) the Chief of a State, or (ii) a Minister, Commander-in-Chief of land or sea forces, or diplomatic or consular agent of any foreign Government or (iii) a British Government official authorized in this behalf by the Government of India, or (iv) the Secretary General of the League of Nations, or the reply to any such telegram. Such telegrams shall bear the service instruction "State" inserted by sender or by the telegraph office of origin at the end of the preamble.

184. Replies to State Telegrams.—The right to send a foreign State telegram in reply to a foreign State telegram may be established by the production of the original State telegram.

185. Telegrams of Consular Agents.—Consular Agents shall be entitled to send Foreign State telegrams only when such telegrams are addressed to State officials and relate to official matters. Telegrams which do not fulfil these conditions shall, when presented as State telegrams, be nevertheless accepted by telegraph offices and transmitted as such, but any telegraph offices transmitting such a telegram shall immediately report the matter to the appropriate Postmaster-General.

186. Language.—Foreign State telegrams may be expressed in plain language, code or cipher. Foreign State telegrams which do not comply with the provisions of Rules 161 to 164 shall not be refused, but any telegraph office observing such non-compliance shall immediately report the matter to the appropriate Postmaster General.

187. Collation.—State telegrams in figure or letter cipher shall be repeated in their entirety (Rule 279) by the receiving office in the manner required for "collated" telegrams (Rule 167). If the telegram is written partially in cipher, the cipher portions only shall be repeated.

188. The sender of a Foreign State telegram may renounce the priority in transmission conferred on State telegrams by Rule 159 (1) (b). In such case the telegram shall bear the service instruction "without priority" written by the sender, and the telegram shall be treated, as regards order of transmission, like an ordinary private telegram [Rule 159 (1) (b)].

189. Service Telegrams.—"Foreign service telegram" means a foreign telegram which is sent free on the service of a Telegraph Administration and which relates either to International Telegraph service or to objects of public interest agreed upon between the different Telegraph Administrations.

190. "Service advice" means a telegraphic communication between one telegraph office and another in respect of a telegram already transmitted or in course of transmission between such offices.

191. During the period of preservation of records in telegraph offices (Rule 323), the sender or the addressee of any foreign telegram already transmitted or in course of transmission or the authorised representative of either of them may, if their identity and, in the case of agents, their authority is satisfactorily established, have information obtained or instructions given by telegraph about such telegrams. Such person shall deposit the cost of the telegram conveying the request and of a reply if one is needed:

Provided that when the addressee asks for the repetition of a telegram received by him he shall pay the charge for each word to be repeated, and no further charge shall be made for a reply; in the case of a telegram repeated from a Frontier Telegraph office, the charge payable shall be that for the transmission of an inland express telegram containing the number of words to be repeated:

Provided, further, that when a Government official asks for the repetition of a telegram received by him in his official capacity, he shall not be required to prepay the charge for repetition; but if no error of the telegraph service is revealed by such repetition the said charge shall thereafter be recovered from him.

192. (1) A telegram sent at the request of the addressee, in order to obtain the repetition of a passage suspected to be erroneous, shall be deemed always to imply a telegraphic reply of the same class as the telegram making the request, and the insertion of the instruction "reply paid" shall not be necessary. In other cases in which a telegraphic reply is desired the instruction "reply paid" shall be inserted in the telegram conveying the request.

(2) If under the provisions of Rule 191 a reply by post is desired, the service advice shall bear the instruction "letter" in place of "RPX". The charge for such a reply shall be four annas.

193. Save as provided under Rule 197, the rectification or cancellation of foreign telegrams, and all other communications addressed to a telegraph office in respect of foreign telegrams already transmitted or in course of transmission shall be effected solely by means of service advices at the expense of the person making the demand.

194. The charges paid for service advices necessitated by errors of the Telegraph Service shall be refunded upon application made in accordance with the provisions of Rule 335.

195. When the words, of which repetition is requested, are indistinctly written, the office of origin shall, before giving a repetition, make inquiry of the sender or, if the sender cannot be found, shall add to the repetition a note "Writing doubtful".

196. When the repetition relates to a telegram which has reached a foreign telegraph office of origin from the sender by telephone or by a private telegraph wire, that office before giving a repetition will ask the sender to repeat the words in question. In such case, if one or more of the words thus repeated are not the same as the words in the telegram, the office will give the desired repetition as corrected by the sender but will add to the text of the service advice the indication CTP, (remettre taxe payée, or return charge paid) followed by the number, in letters, of words corrected by the sender, thus:—CTP one, CTP two, etc., and the charge for repetition shall not in such case be refunded.

197. The various communications mentioned above may be made by post through the agency of the Telegraph Offices of origin or destination. They shall in such case be forwarded under registered cover at the expense of the applicant who shall also pay the cost of a reply by post if such reply is required.

CHARGING OF WORDS

198. What is counted.—Every word or character written by the sender on the copy of a foreign telegram intended for transmission shall be included in calculating the charge:

Provided that the route indication shall not be charged for and dashes used only to separate on the sender's copy the different words or groups of the telegram shall not be charged for or transmitted. Signs of punctuation, apostrophes and hyphens shall be transmitted only at the request of the sender, and shall in such case be counted as provided under Rules 209 and 210.

199. When signs of punctuation, instead of being used separately, are repeated one after the other, they shall, for the purpose of calculating the charge, be counted as groups of figures.

200. Preamble.—The name of the telegraph office of origin, the number of the telegram, the date and time of handing in, route indications, and the words, numbers or signs which form the preamble and are added by the Telegraph Office for official purposes, shall not be included for the purpose of calculating the charge; such of these particulars as reach the telegraph office of delivery, and in all cases the date and time of handing in, shall appear on the copy delivered to the addressee.

201. All foreign telegrams shall be timed by the Standard time, which in India is 5½ hours in advance of Greenwich time.

TARIFFS AND CHARGES.

217. Charge by the word.—The charge for a foreign telegram shall be at a specified rate per word; such rates per word to different foreign countries shall be notified in the Post and Telegraph Guide.

NOTE.—The rates for foreign telegrams are dependent upon the rates fixed by the different countries and companies concerned in their transmission and are, therefore, liable to vary with the rates in such countries and companies and also with the sterling exchange value of the rupee, all accounts with foreign Telegraph Administrations being settled in terms of the gold franc.

218 Frontier Telegraph Offices.—"Frontier telegraph office" means a Government telegraph office which directly exchanges telegrams with Foreign Administrations, namely:—

I. In the Indian area:—
- (a) Bombay, Madras and Calcutta exchanging telegrams with the Eastern Telegraph Company.
- (b) Karachi, exchanging telegrams with the Indo-European Telegraph Department.
- (c) Madras and Bombay, exchanging telegrams with the Eastern Extension, Australasia and China Telegraph Company.

II. In the Burma area:—
- (a) Rangoon, exchanging telegrams with the Siamese Administration,
- (b) Bhamo, exchanging telegrams with the Chinese Administration.

219. Prepayment of Charges.—Save as provided in Rules 221, 298, 299, 310 and 320, charges for foreign telegrams shall be prepaid by the sender.

220. Cash, Stamps or Deposit Account.—At telegraph offices authorized to accept foreign telegrams the charges shall be prepaid in cash or stamps, provided that at departmental telegraph offices foreign telegrams may be accepted on the Deposit Account System described in Rule 75.

221. State Telegrams without prepayment.—(1) Foreign State telegrams may be accepted without prepayment at such departmental telegraph offices as the Director-General may specify in this behalf, from any British Government official authorized to send foreign State telegrams, whose average expenditure on telegrams is Rs. 1,000 or more per month, on condition that settlement of all charges due on such telegrams shall be made monthly by cash payments into the local treasury, and that a fee for the upkeep of accounts shall be paid by the sender at the rate of 12 annas for every complete batch of 25 telegrams despatched by the sender and 12 annas for the remainder of such telegrams, if any.

(2) The provisions of Rule 219 regarding prepayment may be relaxed in case of any foreign State telegram of great emergency, but in any such case it shall be the duty of the sender to ascertain the charges due, and to pay them into the telegraph office within twenty-four hours.

222. Receipts.—A receipt stating the number of the telegram and the charges paid may be obtained for each telegram accepted for transmission at a telegraph office. Duplicate copies of receipts for telegrams shall not be given.

223. Recovery of bearing and other charges from addressee.—Save as provided by Rule 289, when a charge is due on delivery the telegram shall be handed to the addressee only upon payment of the amount due.

224. Undercharges.—Save as otherwise provided under Rule 212, amounts undercharged in error shall be recovered from the sender.

225. Overcharges.—The amount of any overcharge made in error or the value of stamps in excess affixed by the sender shall be refunded to the person entitled thereto, without application if the amount is not less than Re. 1-4-0, or on application made by him if the sum is less than Re. 1-4-0.

ROUTE

226. The different routes by which foreign telegrams may be transmitted shall be notified by concise or abbreviated indications in the Tariff Tables published in the Post and Telegraph Guide.

227. A sender of a foreign telegram who wishes to prescribe a particular route for the transmission of his telegram shall write the corresponding indications on the telegram form tendered for transmission; or he may mark the telegram "Best Route" or "Cheapest Route". Indications as to route shall be transmitted free (Rule 198).

228. When the sender of a foreign telegram has prescribed the route to be followed, the telegraph offices concerned shall, subject to the provisions of Rule 230, conform to his instructions, unless the route indicated be interrupted or be well known to be overcrowded; in such case the telegram may be transmitted by a route other than that indicated by the sender.

229. In the absence of any indication from the sender of a foreign telegram as to the route to be followed, each telegraph office from which the routes diverge shall decide by which route the telegram shall be forwarded.

230. When a foreign telegram can be forwarded at the same tariff by several routes operated by the same Administration, the latter shall decide, in the best interests of the sender, by which route a private telegram shall be forwarded.

231. When a foreign telegram can be forwarded by wire or wireless, whether or not the routes employed are operated by the same Administration, the sender may request that the telegram be transmitted by "wire" or by "wireless" by writing on the telegram a clear instruction to that effect. This instruction shall be considered by the Telegraph Service as a route indication (Rule 198). It shall be transmitted in one of the following forms:—"FIL" when the sender requests transmission by wire and "ANTEN" when the sender requests transmission by wireless.

232. Foreign State telegrams (Rule 183) ordered for transmission by "wire" shall in no case be transmitted by "wireless" unless the sender has authorised the transmission by "wireless", and similarly foreign State telegrams ordered for transmission by "wireless" shall, in no case, be transmitted by "wire" unless the sender has authorised transmission by "wire".

233. Other foreign telegrams ordered for transmission by "wire" shall not be transmitted by "wireless" unless the "wire" route is interrupted and there is no prospect of its early restoration. Conversely other telegrams ordered for transmission by "wireless" shall not be transmitted by "wire" unless the radio-electric route is interrupted without prospect of early restoration.

INTERRUPTION OF TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION. TRANSMISSION IN DUPLICATE.

234. When owing to an interruption in telegraphic communication a foreign telegram cannot be forwarded by the ordinary route between two telegraph offices, the office beyond which the interruption occurs or an office situated further back shall, with due regard to the provisions of Rule 232, forward the telegram immediately by an alternative telegraph route, or, if no such route is available, by special messenger or by post (registered, if possible).

*If the sender wishes the signs of punctuation to be signalled.

235. A foreign telegram shall be diverted, by a more costly route without any additional charge, if it reaches the office which is to divert the telegram within a period of 24 hours following the commencement of the interruption:

Provided that such diversion without additional charge shall not be permissible in respect of more than three interruptions in the same line in any one month. In all other cases the sender shall be communicated with and asked to pay the additional charge, if he wishes his telegram to be diverted by a more costly route.

236. If a foreign telegram is transmitted by means other than telegraphic, it shall be addressed by the retransmitting office either to the nearest telegraph office in a position to re-transmit it, or to the telegraph office of destination or, when such re-transmission takes place within the country of destination, to the addressee himself. As soon as communication is restored the telegram shall be transmitted afresh by telegraph, unless its receipt has been already acknowledged or unless by reason of exceptional congestion of traffic, the re-transmission would be obviously prejudicial to the service as a whole.

CANCELLATION OF A TELEGRAM AT THE REQUEST OF THE SENDER.

237. Before Transmission.—The sender of a foreign telegram or his authorised representative may, on establishing his identity, cancel the telegram at any time before transmission has begun, and in such case the charges paid, less a fee of five annas, shall be at once refunded.

238. After Transmission.—If the telegram is in course of transmission or has already been transmitted by the telegraph office of origin, it may be cancelled by a paid service advice addressed under Rule 181 to the telegraph office of destination. The sender shall pay the cost of a reply to the cancellation advice either by telegraph or by post at his option. As far as practicable the service advice shall be transmitted in turn to the telegraph offices to which the original telegram was forwarded until it overtakes the telegram. In the absence of instructions to the contrary in the service advice the addressee shall be informed of cancellation of the telegram if it has been delivered to him. The office which cancels the telegram, or which delivers to the addressee the cancelling advice shall notify the office of origin accordingly. If the sender has paid for a telegraphic reply to the cancelling advice the notification shall be sent by telegraph; otherwise, it shall be sent by post as a prepaid letter. If the telegram is cancelled before reaching the office of destination, the charge for the original telegram, the cancelling service advice and the paid telegraphic reply, if any, in respect of distance not traversed shall be refunded to the sender on application made by him in accordance with the provisions of Rule 335.

240. Free delivery limits.—(1) Foreign telegrams addressed to a place of residence within the delivery limits of the telegraph office of destination shall at once be taken to the address indicated on the telegram:

Provided that telegrams bearing the special instruction "Late" or "Day" [Rule 160 (c)] shall not be delivered during the night, and telegrams received during the night shall not be delivered after the hour of closing of the telegraph office of destination unless they bear the instruction "Night" or "Night" [Rule 160 (d)], or unless they are considered at the delivery office to be of a really urgent nature.

(2) Telegrams shall be delivered free of charge within five miles of a telegraph office. Beyond this distance telegrams shall be delivered either by registered post without additional charge, or by such other means as may have been arranged and paid for by the sender, or requested by the addressee [Rule 362 (a)].

Provided that from Railway telegraph offices at stations where the traffic is not sufficient to justify the maintenance of a special delivery staff telegrams shall ordinarily be delivered by hand within the railway station limits only, and telegrams for places outside such limits shall ordinarily be delivered through the registered post.

241. Reply given to messenger.—Save in the case of delivery by the ordinary post the messenger who delivers a telegram, may be entrusted with a reply telegram, provided he be not detained for the purpose more than five minutes. The fact of a reply telegram having been given to the messenger and the amount paid to him in regard thereof shall be mentioned on the receipt signed for the original telegram.

242. Delivery by post.—Foreign telegrams which have to be despatched at the Post Office (i.e., telegrams bearing the instruction "Poste restante", = "GP"=or "Poste restante recommendee", or =="GPR".=) shall be sent immediately to the post office by the telegraph office of destination under the conditions fixed by Rules 306 and 501.

243. Delivery on ships.—Foreign telegrams addressed to passengers on board a vessel arriving at a port shall be delivered, if possible, before disembarkation. In the event last named the telegraph office of destination shall write the instruction "Addressee only" in full on the envelope, and the telegram shall then be delivered to none other than the addressee.

245 Open delivery.—The sender may by writing on the telegram form the special instruction "open" [Rule 160 (d)] request open delivery of the telegram, and in such case the instruction shall be reproduced on the addressee's copy of the telegram which shall be delivered without an envelope, simply folded, with the address written on the back.

246. Undelivered telegrams.—When a telegram cannot be delivered the telegraph office of destination shall send with the minimum of delay a service advice to the telegraph office of origin stating the cause of non-delivery and the amount of bearing charges, if any, unpaid at destination and payable by the sender. such advice shall, where possible, be communicated to the sender by the office of origin:

Provided that no advice shall be sent under this Rule in respect of a telegram posted under Rule 240 and returned undelivered by the post office to the telegraph office which posted it, or in respect of telegrams addressed to await arrival, "poste restante", "telegraphe restante," "care of telegraph or post office" or "care of Station Master," except when a charge has to be collected; in the latter case a service advice of non-delivery shall be sent by post at the expiration of the period prescribed for the retention of such correspondence in Rule 253.

247. On receipt of a service advice of non-delivery of a foreign telegram the telegraph office of origin shall check the address, and if it is found to have been altered in transmission shall rectify the error immediately by a service advice which shall contain instructions (e.g., "forward to destination," "cancel telegram," etc.) necessary to correct any errors committed; if the address is found not to have been altered, the telegraph office of origin shall, whenever possible, communicate to the sender the advice of non-delivery.

248. An advice of non-delivery shall be retransmitted by telegraph only if the sender of the original telegram has requested that his telegrams be retransmitted by telegraph (Rule 290). In all other cases the retransmission shall be effected by post in the form of a prepaid letter, if the address of the sender is known. The addressee of an advice of non-delivery may complete, rectify or confirm the address of the original telegram only by means of a paid service advice (Rule 191).

249. If it becomes possible without receipt of a rectifying advice to deliver a foreign telegram in respect of which an advice of non-delivery has been transmitted, the telegraph office of destination shall send to the office of origin a second service advice stating that the telegram has been delivered. Such advice of delivery shall be communicated to the sender only if he has already received an advice of non-delivery. This second advice shall not be transmitted when delivery is notified by telegraphic notification of delivery (Rule 280).

250. If at the address given on the telegram the messenger is unable to attract the attention of any person to whom he is authorized, under the provisions of Rule 244, to effect delivery a notice shall be left by the messenger at such address advising the addressee of the arrival of the telegram and intimating that delivery may be obtained on application at the telegraph office. The telegram shall then be brought back to the telegraph office to be delivered to the addressee or his representative upon application. If the addressee, duly advised as above of the arrival of a telegram, fails to take delivery within 24 hours non-delivery shall be reported in accordance with Rule 248.

251. Telegraphe restant.—When a foreign telegram is addressed "Telegraphe restant", it shall be delivered at the counter of the telegraph office to the addressee or to his duly authorized representative either of whom may be called upon first to prove his identity.

253. Any foreign telegram unclaimed or not delivered shall, subject to the provisions of Rules 252 and 312, be preserved by the telegraph office of destination for a period of forty-two days

254. Directions about delivery.—For the registration of standing instructions regarding the delivery of telegrams during fixed hours, the same fee shall be levied as is leviable for the registration of an abbreviated address (vide Rule 32). If the fee for a registered abbreviated address has already been paid by the applicant, an extra fee of Rs. 5 yearly, or Rs. 2-8-0 half-yearly, as the case may be, shall be levied for the registration of each separate special delivery instruction, and a fee of Re. 1 for each change in any one of such instructions. DEFERRED FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

256. "Deferred foreign telegram" means a foreign telegram accepted for transmission at a reduced rate to any place notified in this behalf in the Post and Telegraph Guide on condition that the transmission of such telegram may, if necessary, be deferred in favour of full rate telegrams and press telegrams.

258. Language.—(1) The text of deferred telegrams shall be expressed wholly in plain language in one and the same language chosen from amongst the following, namely:—

328. Extended preservation—On the ground of pending or contemplated judicial proceedings, application may, within the period prescribed for the preservation of telegrams, be made by an interested party to the Officer in charge of the Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta, for the further preservation of any specified telegram. Upon receipt of such application such telegram shall be preserved for a period of three months beyond the date on which it would become due for destruction under Rule 323; at the expiration of this further period the telegram shall, in default of a renewed application, be destroyed. The duty of the Telegraph Department shall be confined to making the search and preserving the telegram, if found, and no information as to the result of the search shall be furnished, nor shall any telegram preserved under this rule be produced, except on the order of a Court of Law or other competent authority.

329. Fees for searching for telegrams.—Should the particulars furnished be insufficient to enable the Check Office or the Telegraph Office, as the case may be, at once to trace a telegram which is the subject of an application under Rule 325 or Rule 328, search shall be undertaken only upon payment of the fee prescribed below, namely:

	Rs.
For searching either the sent or the received telegrams of one telegraph office for one day ..	2
For searching both the sent and the received telegrams of one telegraph office for one day ..	3

330. Applications for inspection of foreign telegrams or for copies of such telegrams may be addressed to the telegraph office within seven days of the date of handing in or receipt of such telegrams, or to the Officer in charge of the Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta, within ten months from such date (Rule 323). Applications for photographs may be addressed to the Officer in charge of the Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta.

REFUNDS.

331. Save as provided in Rule 334, refunds in respect of charges paid shall, in the cases and to the extent mentioned below and upon application or complaint made in accordance with the provisions of Rule 335, be payable to the person by whom such charge was originally paid, namely:—

(a) A refund of the full charge paid for every foreign telegram which, through the fault of the telegraph service, has failed to reach its destination.

(b) A refund of the full charge paid for every foreign telegram stopped in the course of transmission as a result of the interruption of a route and in consequence cancelled at the request of the sender.

(c) A refund of the full charge paid for any foreign telegram which, through the fault of the telegraph service, was received later than it would have been received by post, or which in any case has not been delivered to the addressee until after a period of (1) 24 hours in case of full rate telegrams exchanged between two adjoining countries or countries connected by a direct means of communication, (2) 96 hours in cases of deferred telegrams (Rule 238, etc.), (3) 48 hours in all other cases, such period being counted from the hour of acceptance of the telegram for transmission. The time for which offices are closed when that is the cause of delay, the time occupied in delivery by special messenger, the time employed for transmission by semaphore as well as the period of retention of such telegrams at a semaphore station, at a coast station or on board a ship, shall be reckoned in the periods indicated above. The periods mentioned above, except in case of deferred telegrams, shall be reduced by a half in the case of foreign State telegrams in respect of which the sender has not renounced priority of transmission (Rule 183), in the case of urgent telegrams (Rule 256) and in the case of paid service advices (Rule 191).

(d) A refund of the charge for that part of the text of a collated telegram in code or cipher or of a telegram in plain language, which, as a result of errors in transmission, has manifestly been unable to fulfil its purpose, unless the errors have been rectified by paid service advices under Rule 191.

(e) A refund of the accessory charge for a special service which has not been performed, including the charge for the relative special instructions.

(f) Save as provided by Rule 196, a refund of the amounts deposited for paid service advices requesting repetition of a passage believed to be incorrect, if the words as repeated are not in conformity with the words as originally received, subject to the reservation that in the case where some words were correctly and others incorrectly reproduced in the original telegram, the charge for the words correctly transmitted in the first place shall not be refunded unless the Administration concerned is satisfied that the alterations made prevented the words which had not been distorted from being understood.

(g) A refund of the full charge paid for any other paid service advice, telegraphic or postal, sent under Rules 191 to 197 and necessitated by an error of the telegraph service.

(h) A refund of the full amount of any sum prepaid for a reply when the addressee has not been able to make use of the reply telegram form or has refused it, and the reply telegram form is in the hands of the Telegraph Administration by which it was issued or is restored to that service before the expiration of a period of six months from the date of issue. (Rule 276.)

(i) A refund of the charge pertaining to the telegraph section not traversed when, owing to interruption of a telegraph route, a foreign telegram has been forwarded to its destination by post or by other means. The amount expended to so forwarding the telegram by means other than telegraphic shall, however, in such case be deducted from the sum to be refunded. (Rule 234.)

(j) A refund of the full charge for any foreign telegram with a prepaid reply which has obviously not been able to fulfil its purpose owing to a service irregularity that justified the repayment of the charges paid for the reply; also the full charge for any prepaid reply which has obviously not been able to fulfil its purpose owing to a service irregularity which justifies the repayment of the charge for the original telegram of inquiry.

(k) A refund of the charge, when it amounts to not less than one rupee and four annas, for every word paid for but omitted in the transmission of a telegram, unless the error has been corrected by means of a paid service advice under Rule 191.

(l) A refund of the difference between the amount notified on a reply telegram form as prepaid and the amount of the charge for the telegram franked by means of such reply telegram form, if this difference be not less than one rupee and four annas (Rule 274).

(m) A refund of the charge paid for every telegram stopped under Rules 156 and 157.

(n) A refund of such portion of the charge paid as related to the transmission over the distance untraversed when a foreign telegram is cancelled by the sender before it reaches the telegraph office of destination (Rule 238).

332. When a coastal station advises the telegraph office of origin that a radiotelegram cannot be transmitted to the ship of destination, the office of origin shall at once refund to the sender such portion of the charges paid by him as related to the transmission of the telegram from the coastal station to the ship; when the notification of delivery of a radiotelegram has not reached the station which transmitted such radiotelegram, the charge shall only be refunded if it is found that a refund is payable in respect of the original radiotelegram itself.

333. In the case of a partial refund in respect of a foreign multiple telegram, the charge paid for each copy shall be deemed to be the quotient obtained by dividing, by the number of addresses, the total charges paid for the multiple telegram.

334. The provisions of Rules 331 and 332 shall not be applicable to telegrams passing over the lines of an Administration which itself refuses to submit to the obligation of refunds.

335. (1) Complaints respecting telegrams and claims for refund involving complaints against the Service may be addressed to the Director-General or to the appropriate Postmaster-General, and claims for refund which do not involve complaints against the Service may be addressed to the Officer in charge of the Telegraph Check Office, Calcutta:

Provided that claims for refunds on account of (1) paid service advices (Rule 194), (2) overcharges or telegrams stamped in excess by the sender (Rule 225), or (3) telegrams stamped and cancelled before transmission has begun (Rule 237) may, if made within seven days from the date of the telegram, be presented at the Telegraph Departmental Office or Combined Office at which such advice or telegram was handed in.

(2) Every such claim or complaint shall be accompanied by documentary evidence of the nature specified below, namely:—

(a) in case of non-delivery or of delay, by a written statement from the telegraph office of destination or from the addressee;

(b) in case of alteration or omission, by the copy of the telegram delivered to the addressee;

(c) in case of an unused reply telegram form (Rule 177), by the reply telegram form delivered to the addressee;

(d) in case of telegrams sent from India, by the receipt (Rule 222); and

(e) in case of paid service advices (Rule 191, etc.), by the correction memorandum granted in connection therewith by the telegraph office of delivery.

336. The right to a refund shall lapse after a period of six months from the date of the letter by which the sender is informed that the refund has been granted.

337. No claim for refund shall be admitted in respect of a telegram which was not in accordance with the conditions prescribed for observance by the public with regard to composition, language, legible writing, address, instructions for the conveyance of telegrams beyond the telegraph lines, etc.

GROUNDNUT CROP OF 1926—FOURTH OR FINAL REPORT.

[On an average of the five years ending 1924-25, the area under groundnut in the Madras Presidency has represented 63·2 per cent of the total area under groundnut in India.]

The area sown with groundnut in the Madras Presidency in 1926 is estimated at 2,550,900 acres against the estimate of 2,547,700 acres on the corresponding date of last year. The last estimate fell short of the finally recorded area of 2,598,808 acres by two per cent. The area in an average year is estimated at 1,696,850 acres.

2 The area under groundnut is less than that of last year by two per cent. The area in South Arcot, Trichinopoly, and Tanjore has fallen from 875,800 acres to 838,000 acres as the rainfall in July and August when the main crop is sown was much in defect. In South Arcot, the area is the lowest reported since 1920-21. In Salem, the area has fallen from 130,400 acres to 88,000 as the rainfall in May and June when the early crop is sown was much in defect. In North Arcot and Coimbatore there is a reduction in area, though not to such a great extent in spite of the fall in the price of groundnut, the area in Kistna, Guntur, the Deccan, and Chittoor has risen from 1,011,000 acres to 1,198,000 acres owing to good sowing rains and to the fact that groundnut has replaced cotton in parts; the area in these districts is the highest reported. The area in Guntur has steadily increased from 2,558 acres in 1918-19 to 30,000 acres in the current year. The variations in the other districts are slight. The area in the current year is greater than the average in all districts except South Arcot, Trichinopoly, and the South.

3. The harvesting of the summer and early crop of groundnut was finished by October. The harvesting of the winter or main crop is proceeding. The only important district in which normal yields are expected is Coimbatore where the rainfall during the growing period was fairly well distributed. Owing to the partial failure of the north east monsoon, the crop suffered from drought in all the other districts, especially in Anantapur, South Arcot, Cuddapah, Guntur, Kurnool, and Salem and the harvesting charges were heavier owing to the hardness of the soil and the difficulty of uprooting the crop.

The seasonal factor for the Presidency for both the summer and early crops works out at 66 per cent of the average against 97 per cent in the previous year. The figure is the lowest reported with the exception of the year 1923-24. On this basis, the yield is estimated at 1,103,200 tons of unshelled nuts against 1,263,700 tons in the previous year, a decrease of 13 per cent. The yield in an average year is estimated at 848,400 tons.

4. Figures by districts are given in the statement appended.

GINGELLY CROP OF 1926-27—THIRD REPORT.

[On an average of the five years ending 1924-25 the area under gingelly in the Madras Presidency has represented some 12·3 per cent of the total area under gingelly in India.]

The area sown with gingelly up to the end of December 1926 is estimated at 451,900 acres, as against an estimate of 594,600 acres on the corresponding date of last year, or a decrease of 24 per cent. The reduction in area occurs in most of the important districts except Trichinopoly and is due mainly to the scanty rainfall at sowing time. The greatest reduction in area is found in East Godavari, West Godavari, Chingleput, South Arcot, North Arcot, and Salem where the area has fallen from 246,500 acres to 104,000 acres. In Bellary and Anantapur, the area has increased from 24,500 acres to 45,500 acres owing to good sowing rains in June. In Trichinopoly, the area has increased from 31,500 acres to 92,000 acres owing to good sowing rains in September.

2. The only districts in which an appreciable area has been reported since the previous forecast are Anantapur and Trichinopoly. The area in Kistna and Tinnevelly as now reported is less than in the previous forecast as some of the taluks have furnished revised figures.

3. The main crop has been harvested except in the South. The yield was slightly above normal on the West Coast and normal in Anantapur, Cuddapah, Coimbatore and Ramnad. Yields below normal are reported from the other districts, especially West Godavari, Bellary, South Arcot, Tanjore and Tinnevelly. In East Godavari, the crop was poor both in quantity and quality owing to the unfavourable season.

The seasonal factor for the Presidency works out to 94 per cent of the average. The yield is estimated at 57,200 tons as against 77,000 tons estimated on the corresponding date of last year.

Notice is hereby given that the Inspector General of Prisons will hold an auction at the Penitentiary, Madras at 10 a.m on Saturday the 18th February 1927, for the supply of the following articles of rations required during the year 1927-28 for the jails in the following groups :—

(1) Berhampur, Vizagapatam and Rajahmundry.
(2) Bellary, Alipuram, Nellore, Vellore, the Penitentiary, Chingleput and Rampet
(3) Cuddalore, Trichinopoly, Tanjore, Madura and Palamcottah.
(4) Salem, Coimbatore, Calicut, Cannanore and Mangalore.

Intending bidders are requested to be punctual. In the case of suppliers who may be unable to attend the auction, sealed tenders will be accepted, provided they reach the Penitentiary, Madras, on or before the day and hour mentioned above, and are accompanied by earnest money of Rs. 500 for each group of jails. Tenders should be superscribed "Tender for the supply of rations and miscellaneous articles to the ..... Jails ....." and addressed to the Inspector-General of Prisons, Madras. They will be opened at the time of auction and the offered rates considered along with the bids.

The rates should be quoted in pounds and ounces per rupee for delivery at the jails, the quantities being specified in words as well as in figures. Samples of the articles required can be seen at the auction Suppliers may bid or tender for all or any one of the articles mentioned in the schedule on depositing the requisite earnest money. All supplies must be up to the samples accepted by them or approved by the Superintendent.

2. Successful bidders or tenderers will be required to enter into stamped agreements with the Inspector-General within seven days from the date of receipt of intimation by them that their rates have been accepted. In addition, they should before signing such agreements deposit a security of ten per cent of the total value of the supplies undertaken. (With the approval of the Inspector-General of Prisons, the total amount may be reduced in the case of approved contractors.) Failing compliance within the time specified, the earnest money may be confiscated, and in the event of withdrawal they will also be liable to pay any difference between the prices accepted and those ultimately obtained by the jail. The earnest money received from successful bidders or tenderers will be taken towards their security deposits and those from others returned at the close of the auction.

3. The Inspector-General reserves the right to accept or reject any bid or tender without assigning any reason.

4. Contracts should not be sublet.

5. As the quantities given against each article in the schedule are only approximate, contractors will be under an obligation to supply the entire requirements during the period of the contract, plus so much as may be needed to last for a whole month thereafter provided, in respect of the extra quantities, that written orders are given within a fortnight of the termination of the agreement. At the same time, the Superintendent does not bind himself to receive the quantities or numbers noted in the schedule if they are not required.

6. No article is to be supplied to a jail except on a requisition signed by the Superintendent or some responsible person authorized by him in writing to do so " by order. "

7. No advance of cash will on any account be made to the contractors when giving orders, nor will the jail pay freight or other charges on consignments to be afterwards deducted from bills, but payment for articles delivered at the jail on order will be made promptly after they have been inspected and passed Contractors must submit to receive payment of their bills in whole rupees to which end annas forming part of the sum due on each bill will be disregarded, unless they constitute a fraction equivalent to half rupee or more, when they will be treated as a whole rupee for the purposes of the account.

8. During the prevalence of plague in the vicinity of a jail or that in the areas from which supplies are drawn, all grain, etc., will be liable to be first exposed to the sun outside before being taken in. Also if for any other reason the Superintendent considers exposition of articles to sun necessary.

9. Contractors are required (under a penalty not exceeding Rs 25) to invariably send with each supply, a memorandum or advice note duly signed, showing the number of quantity tendered for acceptance. Also to sign and return within a week of payment by cheque, cash order or remittance transfer receipts, all connected bills forwarded by the Superintendent for the purpose. Questions in connection with any supposed short payment may be referred to the Superintendent separately but are not to be made an excuse for delay or refusal to sign

10. In addition to any difference in prices that may be recoverable from contractors on account of purchase rendered necessary elsewhere by failure, neglect, or refusal, on their part to supply according to the terms of their agreements, a fine not exceeding Rs. 50 may be levied at the discretion of the Superintendent for each and every such case of default. For repeated infringement of the stipulations of the contract or for other justifiable reasons the Inspector General of Prisons may also annul it, recovering all losses sustainable by the jails in consequence of the annulment, from the security deposited by the contractors, or other monies due to them, and, in the event of any residue, by legal measures, if so advised.

11. All wastage found to occur in excess of the respective percentages prescribed in the schedule will have to be made good by the contractors.

12. Further information on any point concerning this notification can be had from the Jail Office.

13. When once the rates offered at an auction or by tender have been accepted, lower quotations from others to the Superintendent or to the Inspector General of Prisons, will not be considered.

Bill No. 1 of 1927—Presidency Small Cause Courts (Madras Amendment) 1

Bill to be introduced in the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations.

Under rule 18 of the Madras Legislative Council Rules, the following Bill, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons, is published for general information:—

BILL No. 1 OF 1927

A Bill to amend the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, in its application to the Presidency Town of Madras.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, in its application to the Presidency Town of Madras for the purpose hereinafter appearing and whereas the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained; It is hereby enacted as follows:— XV of 1882.

1. This Act may be called the Presidency Small Cause Courts (Madras Amendment) Act, 1927.

2. (a) In section 47 of the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act, 1882, for the words 'suit in the High Court against the applicant' the words 'suit against the applicant in the High Court or in the Madras City Civil Court as the case may be' shall be substituted; and XV of 1882.

(b) In section 49 of the same Act, after the words 'suit in the High Court' the words 'or in the Madras City Civil Court as the case may be' shall be inserted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

In the course of his Order on Civil Miscellaneous Petitions Nos. 691 and 692 of 1926, the Hon'ble the Chief Justice made the following remarks :—

"The Small Cause Courts Act by Chapter VII provided a summary remedy for an owner of property to eject persons in possession of that property which was prima facie illegal and sections 46, 47 and 49 of that Act provide safeguards against such a summary order precluding the determination of any question of title which may be raised in a court of appropriate jurisdiction. The Small Cause Courts Act was passed in 1882 and at that time the only tribunal which could try questions of title to property liable to be the subject of summary order under the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act was the High Court; and sections 47 and 49 of the Act are framed in view of that position. That Act dates from 1882 and in 1892 the City Civil Court Act was passed which gives jurisdiction to the City Civil Court to try questions of title to property up to a certain value which would include the property in issue in this suit. I am quite clear that the Small Cause Courts Act deliberately provided for summary remedies for possession without prejudice to the trial of questions of title in a higher tribunal. The difficulty has entirely arisen owing to the fact that ten years later the City Civil Court Act provided a new tribunal whose jurisdiction as to title was up to a certain amount concurrent with that of the High Court and it did not amend the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act to conform to the altered state of affairs . . . What is really required is that the Small Cause Courts Act should be amended by adding in each section where the expression 'a suit in the High Court' occurs the words 'or in the City Civil Court' to meet the altered state of things created by the City Civil Court Act of 1892 . . . In my opinion it is most imperative that it (that amendment) should come into force at the earliest possible moment. Otherwise either the High Court will be clogged with trivial suits relating to the title of property of small value because of the reservation of all questions of title by the Act of 1882 to the High Court or else the City Civil Court will be beset with arguments alleging res judicata on the ground that res judicata is guarded against by the Act of 1882 only in the case of proceedings in the High Court."

The Bill is intended to give effect to the suggestion made by the Hon'ble the Chief Justice so as to prevent the plea of res judicata being raised in a suit on the City Civil Court in consequence of an order of ejectment passed by a Small Cause Court under Chapter VII of the Presidency Small Cause Courts Act.
